Part II

Purpose

7

Describe the purpose of the organization

The Wireless Presidential Fund (the "Fund") seeks to assist the national party committees in their "party building" activities at the state and local level. The Fund is a "non-federal account" maintained by a national telecommunications trade association. The Fund does not contribute to or advocate the election or defeat of any identified federal candidate. The Fund generally advocates the interests of the wireless industry to the national party committees and their members.
